

Mohammed Khatib

Mohamed Al-Khatib (EMY KAT) was born in 1959 in Jeddah. He began his career as an Industrial Consultant for big firms in Saudi Arabia. In 1993, he dramatically changed career paths and became a fashion photographer, but also worked on portraits, commercial advertising and has recently shifted to Post Medium and fine-art photography. He has lived and worked in Los Angeles, New York, London, and currently is based in Paris, with a satellite base in Dubai.

He is a contemporary photographer whose large body of work has been built over several decades. In 1993 He went on to refine his craft in the USA and received a graduate degree in 1997 from the Brooks Institute of photography in Santa Barbara, California, (USA) with exceptional academic achievements and honors along with awards in Advertising and Creative Excellence.

The artist has earned several renowned awards in his fields and his work is published in several books by Graphis NY, among others, and is included in a number of private and public collections such the BNF Bibliothèque Nationale De France 2000)).